

Hey Sailor, You buy beer?

Under floorboard."

After 91 days at sea out of 101, we were more than ready for R&R in Bangkok. Thailand was the favorite country visited. English has become a second language to communication was easy. Whether it was bartering for silk or just talking with the people, the Thais were very warm and we were made to feel welcome in their country.