

AUXILIARY DIVISION

Machinery Technician (MK). Machinery technicians may be assigned to both ships and shore stations. They operate, maintain, and repair internal combustion engines, propulsion boilers, steam turbines and main propulsion power transmission equipment. They also operate, maintain and repair auxiliary, fireroom, refrigeration, air-conditioning, electrical and machine shop equipment. They organize, lead, and participate in damage-control repair parties and perform engineering-related administrative functions.

