

DAMAGE CONTROL DIVISION

Damage Controlman (DC). Damage controlmen are assigned to all but the smallest ships and shore stations, and are specialists in the theory, techniques, skills, and equipment of fire-fighting, chemical warfare, carpentry, painting, and general damage control. They maintain and repair damage-control equipment, perform all types of carpentry work, and repair and maintain woodwork aboard ship, including small boats.

