

19 MAY - 7 JUNE
GUANTANAMO BAY

Arriving in the intense mid-day heat peculiar to Cuba and similar latitudes, we began nineteen days of intensive underway training. Equipment was checked and re-checked; the crew was drilled in all aspects of their particular job aboard ship under routine and emergency conditions. The Fleet Training Group demanded perfection. Liberty was short and the drills long.