

For three weeks the Owasco assumed the duties of SOPA-Administrator for all U.S. Naval vessels in the British Colony of Hong Kong.

It was our duty to maintain the Shore Patrol for the Fleet and to handle all mail, communications, and all matters concerning American Naval personnel in the Colony.

Top: Here is how we looked on station as we assumed position as administrator of Naval forces in Hong Kong.
Below: View of our station area in Hong Kong harbor from Victoria Island looking toward Kowloon Isle.