

tanzania

Jambo!

After being an icebreaker, a construction vessel, and, a rescue ship, SOUTHWIND was called upon by the State Department to be an emissary of good will to the long neglected country of Tanzania. Spat shined and freshly painted, SOUTHWIND played host to the peoples and political heads of Dar-es-Salaam and Zanzibar, demonstrating America's friendliness and political position.

The second vice president of Tanzania

