

HUMP DAY

7 June 1969—

SPENCER is underway as before on Area 3 of the Market Time Barrier. Our longest patrol still lies ahead as we carry out faithfully the ships routine "as promulgated in Appendix Alpha . . ." But this is a special day, a day of relaxation and fun—the half way mark of our ten month deployment has been reached. It begins with an afternoon of holiday routine followed by a cookout on the fantail; steaks, charcoal grilled by our famous chefs: SPURLEY, TAL-ACTAC, and NEWMAN. (The grill was courtesy of the DC's, of course.) As the sun set a delightful show was presented by SPENINDINT. Guest stars included Snoopy, still searching for the Red Baron. SPEN spectators were also treated to a surprise visit by the lovely Miss Alvarness Boobers who was interviewed by our own Johnny Grant. The guest stars were followed by a wealth of local SPEN Talent, backed by the Love-IN Band. Craig Mills and Kevin Cain were among the performers.
