

EXCERPTS FROM CHARGES

ARIBAL, TN—Feeding Mr. Hoppe too much chow

BAUER, SA—Speaking Chinese to a Japanese geisha girl

ENS. BOYER—Answering to the name "David"

BRADLEY, SNSK—Ordering 50,000 cardboard boxes

BROWN, BM3—Getting lost in Eureka

CAMPBELL, SNC5—Cooking chow on a stove and serving it hot

DOC CHISOLM—Practicing medicine at sea without a license

ENS. COFFY—Being a typical Laundry Officer

COYLE, ET2—Fixing the Loran set

DeLAVERGNE—Writing personal letters on a government typewriter.

RELE DIEROLF—Working two days straight

ECCLES, CS2—Having a built in life preserver

ELLIOTT, BT1—Wearing a handlebar mustache and not owning a bicycle

FREGETTO, YN1—Having two transfer orders off the TANEY cancelled

ENS GREIF—Walking from the knees down

HANSEN, FNMM—Requesting the TANEY for duty

HAZLETT, CS3—Imitating a cook

ENS. HOPPE—Not eating enough

HUOT, RD2—Being late to everything except meals

ENS. KURTZ—Mooching too much chow from the CPO's

LEWMAN, SA—Striking for MAA

MANRIQUEZ, SN—Getting off deck in less than two years

MARTIN, SO3—Hiding a pie under his mattress

MOBLEY, BTC—Being the soot spreading honcho

NOYER, RM3—Getting sea sick beyond the call of duty

PATTERSON, SA—Trying to sell Idaho potatoes while spud coxswain

PHILLIPS, FT1—Wearing shoes to work (once)

PIETRYZK, FNBT—Having a name that is too hard to spell

RUCKER, SA—Wanting to strike for cook