

The Skipper and Mr. Taggert, a civilian guest of the TANEY riding to Honolulu, examine a Japanese fishnet ball just retrieved from the ocean. Mr. Taggert handles about 95% of TANEY TEAM's stateside ham radio calls

Sunday dinner in the wardroom

0045, 1 September—Sighted Diamond Head light abeam to starboard, bearing 030T, range 5000 yards . . .

After a short stop at Pearl Harbor for fueling, the TANEY heads for Honolulu. With Diamond Head in the background, Doc looks happy to be "hittin'" port.

