

1900, 1 October — TANEY relieved by WINNEBAGO. TANEY underway on course 272°T, speed 17.5 knots, en-route Yokosuka, Japan. Then, while deballasting full tanks, a bent spray guard covered the starboard side with black oil. All hands . . .

THEN . . . BEAUTIFUL JAPAN!

知

康